ITINERARY

Day 1

Arrival to Budapest
Proceed airport formalities
Meet the driver and transfer to the hotel
Overnight in Budapest

Day 2

Breakfast at the hotel
Morning – reach on own meeting point of the famous Duck bus. Budapest is the first city in the continental Europe, where you can enjoy the unique experience of sightseeing aboard an exceptional amphibious coach. Until now you had to decide between two options: see the beautiful capital city through the windows of a tour coach or enjoy a boat ride on the Danube surrounded by the wonderful sights of Budapest. No need to choose anymore... First, enjoy the sights of Budapest from the comfortable seats of the coach, as you go through busy streets; then experience the unforgettable moment when with a big splash the coach plunges into the Danube and sails downriver with you while you pass the breathtaking World Heritage sites of this magnificent city. Following the water adventure, the coach climbs ashore, and you'll find yourself once again in the midst of a bustling metropolis.

Seeing Budapest from special coach is a unique experience because you can enjoy the best of both worlds: visit important sights up-close and see also the big picture from the Danube without ever having to leave your seat.

Afternoon – free
Overnight in Budapest

Day 3

Breakfast at the hotel
Full day private Danube bend tour
Meet your guide at the hotel lobby.
You will drive along the Danube river till the first stop in Esztergom, the former capital of Hungary and center of the Catholic Church, as well as seat of the Hungarian archbishop. You will visit the largest cathedral of Hungary. The next stop will be in Visegrad. From the stop of the fortification, you have a fascinating view of the Danube valley. But that's not the only thing to do that. You will see amazing knights tournament at the Solomon tower, where you will travel back to the resplendently colourful Middle Ages. During a spectacular tournament, members of the Szent György Order present that how the knights had fought for the grace of the king and the queen in Visegrád in the 14th century.
