Reach the downtown on your own and meet the guide on Segway.

Join 2,5 hours Segway tour of Munich

In about 2,5 hours we'll show you all main sights of Munich, stopping every few hundred meters to soak them in, hear fascinating anecdotes, take pictures and discuss Munich's history. Your knowledgeable native English-speaking guide will also explain present-day facts and lifestyle facets about Munich while being available to answer your questions.

You'll have a great time as you glide by the sights and everyone stops to take a look at us!

As Munich is famous around the world with its beer culture – there are 450 beer gardens in the city-, the next activity will be beer bike tour.

All you need to do is sit back and help peddle the bike; we will keep your hands free, allowing better use of your paws for more important things like photos ops and, of course, beer (no worries, the peddling's a breeze).

Reach the downtown on your own, board a bus and start your 10 hours journey to the splendid castles of Ludwig II, King of Bavaria. Visit fairytale Neuschwanstein and intimate Linderhof, and take a small detour through the little town of Oberammergau.

In the seclusion of the mountains, King Ludwig II of Bavaria built 2 of his dream-castles: Neuschwanstein and Linderhof. This trip from Munich in a luxury air-conditioned tour-bus will allow you to visit these two important examples of western architecture. Neuschwanstein Castle, in its stunning position in the foothills of the Alps, is also one of the most impressive sights in Germany. Here you will have around 4 hours to explore comfortably every fascinating detail. Linderhof is the only castle that Ludwig the II managed to complete. Around noon you will take a rest at Hohenschwangau Castle, Ludwig's childhood home, for lunch (not included). In addition, you will stop for a short time in Oberammergau, for the opportunity to photograph this picturesque little town and its environs, and to do a little shopping.
